4. Tamara Gonzales (b. Madera, CA. Lives and works in Brooklyn.)

One of the first exhibitions we're looking forward to seeing in the new year is Tamara Gonzales's solo show at Klaus von Nichtssagend Gallery on January 6.

"Ometeotl," her second solo show at the gallery, will feature new paintings, drawings, and woven tapestries. These three distinct branches of Gonzales's work will be shown together for the first time, revealing her multifaceted practice.
